Sandy Markwood, n4a CEO, is scheduled to appear live on the NBC Today Show, Monday, June 5, 2006 between 8:00-8:30 a.m. Eastern Time as a spokesperson for the Eldercare Locator. The focus of the interview will be on parents moving in with an adult child, and Sandy will provide tips on issues to consider in anticipation of the move. Taped footage will include the family of Jane Eisenberg of Delray Beach, FL. She is one of the moms recognized in the 2005 Eldercare Locator "Moms in the Middle" media campaign and received a $250 cash gift to use for a day of relaxation from regular family responsibilities. Many thanks to n4a media consultant Lisa Cohen for helping to make this interview possible, and also to AAA of Palm Beach/Treasure Coast CEO Bob McFalls for his outreach and encouragement to the Eisenberg family.
