

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

<http://webcasts.naccho.org/>

National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO)

presents

Local Collaborations to Promote Healthy Aging

Wednesday, August 23, 2006

3:00–4:30 pm (ET)

2:00–3:30 PM (CT)

1:00–2:30 PM (MT)

12:00–1:30 PM (PT)

Featured Speakers

Julie Weisbrod, MA

Health Educator
Jackson County Health Department/
Department on Aging
Jackson, MI

Tricia Commet, LBSW, CPhT

Activities Specialist
Jackson County
Department on Aging
Jackson, MI

Angela Scott

Coordinator
Aging and Disability Resource Center Program
Senior Services, Inc.
Mt. Airy, NC

Patricia Harrison, BSN, MPS

Director
Washington County Public Health
Hudson Falls, NY

Claire M. Murphy

Director
Washington County
Office for the Aging
Fort Edward, NY

The second in the two-part series exploring collaborations between the public health and aging networks, this webcast will highlight examples of how local health departments and area agencies on aging and other aging organizations have collaborated to promote healthy aging in their communities. These examples, among others, will be featured in NACCHO's soon to be released compendium, Volume 3 of Building Healthier Communities: Local Collaborations to Promote Healthy Aging.

For more information, please contact Claire Valderama at cvalderama@naccho.org.

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

<http://webcasts.naccho.org/>